Engage and retain your workforce

Jump start your HR digital transformation with plug-and-play Total Rewards Statements

In today's employment market, even satisfied workers are at risk of leaving. Research shows that 65% of employees believe they can find a better position that pays more. Turnover is often due to an employee's perception of whether they are appreciated or paid fairly. Showing your employees all the ways you reward them can defend against voluntary attrition. Yet core HRIS systems do not give employees a view into their 360° reward packages.

The compensation experts at beqom make it easy to advance your HR digitization with plug-and-play dynamic total rewards statements that show each employee's holistic compensation and rewards value to the organization.

How does it work?

It's easy: load data from your existing HRIT landscape into our ready-to-use templates and receive personalized total rewards statements right away, available to employees via a web portal that can be integrated into your environment. See immediate, cost-effective results:

- Quick ROI: Deliver retention-boosting value within days, with individualized reports that show employees their total rewards value.
- Cost-Effective: Make a big gain in HR digitization without big investment, with costs as low as $0.21/employee/month.
- Compliant: Centralize data for total rewards, providing transparency and adding value to your HR suite.
- Trustworthy: Rely on the leader in total rewards management for clear, compelling reports that your employees will appreciate.
- Plug-and-Play: Deliver value to employees and HR without development or IT resources or changing your HRIT systems and processes.
- Value adding: Show the value of your compensation team by creating a global, always-on, self-service digital experience.
